3. JURY

The Jury is composed of international personalities from the musical world and its decisions are final. In the event of a tie, the president of the jury has the casting vote.

If one of the candidates turns out to be a student of one of the jury members, the latter will not participate in the evaluation.

The Jury reserves the right to stop any candidate exceeding the allotted time imposed by the Competition rules (eliminary round : 12 minutes ; final : 30 minutes).

The jury reserves the right not to award all prizes if it judges the level insufficient.

The Competition Management reserves the right to authorise and/or carry out the recording on any image, audio or video medium, for the benefit of the Mayenne International Piano Competition.

4. CONDITIONS OF PARTICIPATION

The Competition is open to pianists of all nationalities, under the age of 30 as of April 21, 2027.

All candidates under the age of 18 must be accompanied by an adult who will be fully responsible for the minor throughout the Competition period. If the adult is not one of the candidate's parents, a signed parental authorization must be attached to the registration file.

Candidates are not entitled to any fees or rights.

By registering, candidates agree with the Competition rules, commit to participating in all the rounds and in particular to present themselves at the time of the notification, as well as to accept the jury's decisions. In the event of a dispute, the text written in French shall be authentic.

5. COMPETITION REGISTRATION

The deadline for registrations is February 26, 2027 inclusive, until midnight time in the France time zone.

Upon receipt of applications, only complete files will be accepted.

The application will only be effective after receipt of the registration fees paid by bank transfer. Proof of the transfer (screenshot) will be requested in the registration form.

Any incomplete application will not be accepted. Each candidate will receive a confirmation from the competition management of the receipt of his or her complete application file, by email no later than 2 weeks after the closing date for registrations, i.e. March 08, 2027.

Registration is made exclusively on the website by online registration form.

IMPORTANT : in order to ensure the smooth running of the Competition, the number of candidates selected is limited to 70. The Competition management reserves the right to close entries before the deadline when this number is reached.

When the limit of 70 applications is reached, 10 additional applications in order of arrival will be retained on a waiting list.

In the event of withdrawal, candidates are requested to notify the competition management as soon as possible in order to allow the candidates on the waiting list to be selected.

Candidates on the waiting list may be definitively selected until April 8, 2027. Beyond this date, candidates on the waiting list will no longer be able to claim a final selection and will be reimbursed for the registration fee.

In the event of an insufficient number of participants, the management reserves the right to cancel the competition. In this case, the registration fee will be fully refunded.

The notification will be sent by email to the address provided at the time of registration, between March 25 and March 29, 2027, with mention of the date and time of the candidate's eliminatory round, and the time of the piano test. Check for spam.

The contact details of the host family if requested will be sent by email three weeks before the start of the Competition.

The candidate must present himself on the day and at the time mentioned on the invitation. In case of non-receipt, the competition management thanks you for notifying them by email.

6. PROGRAMS

- Elimination round (minimum 2 works) :

12 minutes of program including :

- A virtuosity study of your choice (Chopin, Liszt, Scriabin, Rachmaninov, Debussy, Prokofiev, Ligeti, Stravinsky, etc.).
- one or more pieces, different from the study (different composers, different aesthetics).

- Final round :

30 min free program, different from the elimination event.

No program changes will be accepted after April 1, 2027.

Candidates must play the programs they have committed to play.

All works must be performed from memory, only works composed after 1970 (contemporary writing) can be performed with the score.

Contemporary pieces for "prepared piano" are not allowed in the Competition program.

The candidates are free to choose whether or not to play the repetitions.

After the results have been announced, the candidates have the opportunity to speak with each of the members of the jury.

The Competition assumes no responsibility in the event of a change of date or cancellation of a concert or masterclass.

In the event of the winner's unavailability on the dates set by the concert organisers, these cannot be postponed.

8. TRAVEL/ ACCOMMODATION

Travel and accommodation costs as well as visas are the responsibility of the candidates. A letter of invitation can be provided upon request.

Free accommodation in a host family is offered for candidates over 18 years old who request it at the time of registration, subject to availability.

Once the available host family placements are filled, free accommodation is offered at the Don Bosco High School boarding facility, in a single room with a private shower.

These accommodations are reserved for the candidate to the exclusion of any other person (friends or families of the candidate). Failure to comply with this clause will result in the cancellation of the candidate's participation in the competition.

Candidates who do not wish to be accommodated with a family will have to manage, at their own expense, their accommodation and daily travel.

For candidates wishing to be accommodated in a hotel, a preferential rate 10% off is granted by the hotel « La Tour des Anglais » near the theater (only by phone).

The maximum stay of accommodation is from Wednesday 22 April from 6pm (with arrival before 9.00pm), to Monday 27 April 8am.

IMPORTANT : when assigning a host family, the candidate must contact them within 7 days of receiving the information, otherwise he/she will lose his/her place. He/she must also confirm his/her arrival time at the latest one week before the start of the competition.

In the event of withdrawal, he/she must immediately notify the management of the Competition and his/her host family.

The candidate is asked to respect the peace and quiet and rhythm of life of the host family by showing discretion, in particular : to prevent outings, to be back before 10 p.m., to restore the rooms used, not to smoke and to respect the agreed rehearsal times, to behave pleasantly.

Candidates staying in the boarding facility must also comply with the boarding regulations.

The host family, the Don Bosco boarding school and Mayenne Communauté decline all responsibility in the event of theft or accident of the person accommodated.

9. REHEARSALS/SHUTTLES

Each candidate will be able to try out the competition piano on stage for a period of 5 minutes. The schedule will respect the order of the Competition draw. The trial sessions will take place on Thursday, April 22 (morning and afternoon) and Friday, April 23 (morning). Finalists will be able to try out the piano again on the day of the finale.

The pianos of the Mayenne Academy of Music are made available free of charge to candidates to work throughout the duration of the competition, according to a schedule established and communicated a few days before the start of the Competition. Address : Le Grand Nord, Esplanade François Mitterrand, Mayenne.

Host families with an acoustic piano will make it available to the candidate during the day and according to a schedule to be agreed with him.

Free shuttles are provided to transport candidates from the conservatory to the theater at the time of their rounds.

10. INSURANCE

Mayenne Communauté, the organizer of the competition, has insurance covering its civil liability in the context of the organization of the competition. Candidates are reminded of the interest of holding an insurance contract covering the civil liability they may incur as well as a personal insurance contract covering bodily injuries to which they may be exposed and covering any medical expenses.
